CLIFFORD ON TRIAL

Wattson Begun in Jersey City Yesterday.

Clerk Skane, Who Witnessed the Shooting, Describes the Attack and What Led to It.

Premeditated-Physician Testifies That Clifford Was Suffering From Delirium Tremens.

Edward Clifford, who, on March 5 last, shot down William G. Wattson, superintendent of the Hudson River Division of the West Shore Railroad, in his office at Weehawken, N. J., wounding the latter so badly that he died on March 10, in Roosevelt Hospital, was yesterday placed on trial in the Hudson County Court of Oran and Van Winkle are at scratch in veit Hospital, was yesterday placed on trial in the Hudson County Court of Oyer and Terminer. Justice Lippincott and Judge Hudspeth occupied the bench, Prosecutor Charles H. Winfield represented the State and ex-Judge W. T. Hoffman and W. A. Speer, Jr., Clifford. Speer, Jr., Clifford.

After some trouble in selecting a jury from a struck panel of twenty-four, Prosecutor Winfield opened the case by giving a brief recital of the facts.

After a number of witnesses had testified to hearing the shots, and that Superintendent Wattson had told them that Clifford had shot him, John B. Skane, a clerk in the Superintendent's office, who was the only eye witness present, was placed on BOARD AT $5 PER WEEK the stand. He said that previous to 3 p. m. on the day of the shooting, Superintendent Wattson was in New York. Clifford, he said, visited the office at 11 a. m., asked for Mr. Wattson, and then went ford, he said, visited the office at 11 a. m., asked for Mr. Wattson, and then went away.

"He returned at 2 p. m.," continued Mr. Skane, "snd told me to tell Superintendent Wattson that he would call again. Superintendent Wattson came in shortly after 3 p. m. and Detective Clifford followed in a few minutes. He remained outside the railing for several minutes, and then, when Superintendent Wattson asked him what he wanted, entered the enclosure and stood beside the latter's desk and then sat down. He handed Wattson the lefter that notified him of his discharge. Superintendent Wattson rend the lefter, then told Clifford that it meant just what it stated. Clifford then said: You have always had a gradge against me. You never gave me anything to do and that is the reason I always reported O, K.' Mr. Wattson asked him, Do you want us to go down and point out the thieves to you? Clifford, he said. Wattson said: 'I got done with you two years ago. I discharged you and you went around boasting that I couldn't discharge you. That seemed to be right, as you were reinstated. Two weeks ago I received a communication that you were spending most of your time in Union Hill and in saloons."

"It was part of my duty to be in saloons." said Clifford, "There was nothing.

spending most of your time in Union Hill and in saloons."

"It was part of my duty to be in saloons," said Clifford. "There was nothing left for me to do but discharge you. We had been keepling tabs on you for two weeks," said Wattson.

"Clifford said he didn't intend to recognize the discharge, and that he would report for duty every day. Mr. Wattson asked him whom he would report to and he said 'To you.' Wattson told him that if he persisted in coming around there he would be put away very quickly. Clifford stood up, laid his hat on Wattson's dosk and saying. Here are my reports,' drew a revolver. Wattson exclaimed. 'Here, here.'' Clifford fired. Wattson stood up and caught Clifford by the hands. I went toward Clifford and he looked at me." Skane then said that he raw from the office for help, hearing the second shot as he did so.

Frank H. Newkirk said that Superintendent Wattson told him that Clifford had "done him for revenge because he had been discharged."

The trial will be resumed to day. Clifford will undoubtedly he placed on the strend will not the strend will undoubtedly he placed on the strend will not the strend wil
